

Attorney Jill Nexon Berman Moderates Discussion at Greater Miami Jewish Federation Event

Rennert Vogel Mandler & Rodriguez partner Jill Nexon Berman, moderated a panel discussion for the Greater Miami Jewish Federation. The Winter Seminar, titled “Tax Cuts and Job Acts of 2017: Analysis, Impact and Planning Strategies” featured three speakers who addressed a group of more than 50 professionals in the areas of development, charitable giving and tax law.

Barry Nelson from Nelson & Nelson P.A., Howard Lucas, CPA and Steven Woolf, senior tax policy counsel for The Jewish Federations of North America, comprised the panel.

“It was both fun and illuminating to preside over this intelligent and engaging panel,” said Berman. “The speakers brought tremendous insight to non-profits on the changes in regulations in 2017 and how to navigate strategies for 2018.”

Berman has been practicing law in Miami since 1978. She specializes in commercial litigation, particularly real-estate related matters such as title disputes and construction defects. She has been board certified by The Florida Bar as a specialist in business litigation since 1998 and is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell. She is also a Certified Circuit Civil, Family and United States District Court Southern District Mediator.

Berman is an active member of the federation and sits on the Women’s Impact Initiative Committee, which makes small grants to women-focused programs. She recently endowed her Lion of Judah by purchasing a life insurance policy for federation, and takes advantage of Federation’s Donor Advised Funds for her charitable contributions.

About Rennert Vogel Mandler & Rodriguez:

Rennert Vogel Mandler & Rodriguez is a Miami-based business and real estate law firm in its third decade of operation. The firm’s attorneys are trusted advisors to their clients and zealously represent them in their daily business operations, including complex real estate transactions, commercial and real estate litigation, mergers and acquisitions, securities offerings, securities litigation and ad valorem taxation matters. Clients retain RVMR attorneys to develop practical solutions for their complex legal needs and the delivery of results in an efficient and timely manner. For more information, please visit www.rvmrlaw.com.

