

August 29, 2023

Rennert Vogel Mandler & Rodriguez Enhances Corporate Securities & Finance Practice With Addition Of Gabriel Jimenez Garcia

AUGUST 29, 2023

Gabriel Jimenez Garcia

Rennert Vogel Mandler & Rodriguez, P.A. further strengthened its seasoned Corporate Securities & Finance practice group with the arrival of Gabriel “Gaby” Jimenez Garcia. Based in Miami, Florida, Jimenez Garcia has substantial experience as a corporate practitioner.

Prior to joining RVMR, Jimenez Garcia practiced in the Miami office of a large international law firm and was associate general counsel with a South Florida-based private equity sponsor and registered investment advisor. He represents private and public companies in domestic and cross-border M&A transactions, equity and debt issuances, joint venture transactions, financing arrangements and regulatory matters.

Charles J. Rennert, managing partner and head of the Corporate Securities & Finance practice group at RVMR, said, “Gaby Jimenez Garcia is a valuable addition to our team of talented Corporate Securities & Finance attorneys. As South Florida continues to be a magnet for corporate relocation and large-scale investment, our firm is in high demand. We are strategically expanding our team with experienced and dedicated practitioners to accommodate that demand. Above all, our transactional clients engage us because of our track record of getting deals done and Gaby, as a seasoned practitioner, working seamlessly with our other lawyers in numerous practice areas, will assist the firm in expanding upon that reputation.”

Jimenez Garcia earned his J.D. from New York University School of Law and his B.A. from the University of Miami.

RVMR’s Corporate Securities & Finance attorneys provide a full array of legal services to the business community including advising clients on the legal aspects of their securities, real estate and other business transactions. They represent a broad spectrum of clients, including entrepreneurs, emerging growth firms, mid-size institutions, Over-the-Counter (OTC) and exchange traded issuers, and private companies going public on the NASDAQ, NYSE or OTC market – including through reverse merger transactions.

In its fourth decade of operation, headquartered in Miami, Florida, Rennert Vogel Mandler & Rodriguez, P.A. has a long history of legal excellence, innovation and creative problem solving, providing effective and efficient advice with a view towards meeting the commercial goals of its clients who rely on its pragmatic judgment and client service. Its attorneys are trusted advisors to their clients and provide first-rate service and execution in complex, business and real estate transactions, commercial and securities litigation and ad valorem taxation matters.